FISCAL ANALYSIS

ASSUMPTION

Officials of the Boone County Fire Protection District stated they would expect no additional fiscal impact, and assume the proposal could save some districts money.

Oversight sent fiscal note request to several fire protection districts across the state. Only one responded. Therefore, Oversight assumes, depending on current payment practices by fire protection boards, this proposal could result in some savings for certain fire protection districts. Oversight for the purposes of this fiscal note assumes savings would be minimal and assumes no fiscal impact to fire protection districts.
